

Państwowy Teatr Lalek "BANIALUKA", Bielsko-Biała /POLAND/
ul. Mickiewicza 20, tel.210-46

Dyrektor Naczelny i Artystyczny: Aleksander Antończak Kierownik literacki: Lueyna Keziń

"A FAIRY-TALE ABOUT A GOOD DRAGON": author - Ladislav Dvorsky

The Green Kingdom was very green. The woods were green, were the groves and green birds sang on green trees. In this beautiful and good country the king - George The Brave ruled. He had only one son - a little prince George. The prince George was very brave and one and nothing. adventures and meet a big army or a terrible dragon. Green Country there gon. So, the Prince for a journey. He steed and went to day - and it was a - the brave prince strange animal."It thought and he was it with a sword

he was afraid of no
He dreamt of many
about the day he will he will have to kill
And here, in this was not a single dra-George had to set out mounted his wonderful meet adventures. One beautiful, summer day
saw a strange, a very must be a dragon", he just going to pierce
when...

This is the beginning of our story about extraordinary adventures of George and about his encounter with a dragon - Ciuncie, quite different dragon from all other ones; about their friendship and about their - full of dangerous moments - adventures. Prince George together with his friend Ciuncie travel all around world to look for adventures; they imprisoned by a bad witch and by terrible robbers. This story - as every fairy-tale - ends well they happily return to The Green Kingdom.

The play "A Fairy-Tale About a Good Dragon" is realized in the convention of a theatre play. It is addressed to younger children. The action full of adventures, funny situations and dialogues, light and cheerfull mood of the story, many songs as well as appeal to children's imagination and keeping close to very well fairy-tale patterns - these are the facts which cause that the play is very clear and children it with great pleasure. "A Fairy-Tale About a Good Dragon" can be performed in the open air in any conditions.

Stage-direction, scenography: Alexander Andrzej Łabiniec

Playing: Krzysztof Romański, Renata Ryt, Wanda Ruez.